

Reporting concerns around sexual and psychological safety

NHS England is committed to ensuring the safety of all clinicians on a training placement or programme in the clinical learning environment. If you wish to report any concerns for yours or anyone else's sexual or psychological safety, we recommend the steps below:

If you do not feel comfortable following the steps above, please email the London Education Quality Team in confidence direct at: england.qrimanagement@nhs.net or, please complete the online form here:

Reporting concerns around sexual and psychological safety

The following pages provide additional resources that you may find helpful:

London Professional Support Unit:
<https://london.hee.nhs.uk/professional-development/spoc-single-point-contact>